

46 Goods and Services Tax Council

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COUNCIL

The 101st Amendment Act of 2016 paved the way for the introduction of a new tax regime (i.e. goods and services tax - GST) in the country. The smooth and efficient administration of this tax requires co-operation and coordination between the centre and the states. In order to facilitate this consultation process, the amendment provided for the establishment of a Goods and Services Tax Council or the GST Council.

The amendment inserted a new Article 279-A in the Constitution. This Article empowered the President to constitute a GST Council by an order<sup>1</sup>. Accordingly, the President issued the order in 2016 and constituted the Council<sup>2</sup>.

The Secretariat of the Council is located at New Delhi. The Union Revenue Secretary<sup>3</sup> acts as the ex-officio Secretary to the Council.
